

In the living room of a Paris apartment designed by Champeau & Wilde, the daybed by Armand-Albert Rateau is upholstered in a Lelievre velvet, the side table is by Donghia and the 1930s cocktail table was found at the Drouot auction house; the sconces are by Gilles & Boissier, and the gilt-wood mirror and marble fireplace are original to the apartment. FACING PAGE. The circa-1950 Danish sofa is covered in mohair-cotton, the cocktail table is by Mattia Bonetti, and the chairs are circa 1970; the wall sculpture is by Katja Strunz and the floor lamp is by Porta Romana. See Resources.

THE GOLDEN TOUCH

A young French-American design firm brings a fresh vision of luxury to a grand 19th-century apartment in Paris, infusing it with light and air, and just enough gilded glamour

TEXT BY DANA THOMAS · PHOTOGRAPHY BY SIMON UPTON
PRODUCED BY ANITA SARSIDI